The global fund for education in emergencies

Update on ECW-GPE Collaboration

- Coordination and Alignment: Monthly meetings between ECW Director and GPE Chief Executive Officer, as well as more frequent interaction between respective country leads to ensure better coordination and alignment
- Note on Complementarities: A note to highlight how ECW and GPE will work together more closely, each within their own niche and in line with their respective mandates, strengths and comparative advantages
- Board Representation: ECW has joined the GPE board as an observer. The full integration of ECW into the GPE board will be taken up as part of the upcoming governance review
- Joint Pledge: ECW, GPE and the WB have pledged to further increase and improve the financial and technical support they provide to countries hosting large refugee populations, including by better coordinating and aligning the planning, financing and delivery of education assistance
